

Graduate Student Application for Teaching Positions Form

Please carefully follow the instructions and provide all information requested. Return the completed form and related materials to Laura Pierce by the due date. The due date is specified in an email inviting you to apply for a teaching position.

1. Name _____

2. USF E-mail Address _____

3. Phone Number(s) _____

4. Faculty Advisor _____

5. Semester & year for which you are applying to teach _____

Advisor's signature, indicating support for your application: _____

5. Year of Entry into Program _____

6. Progress in Program Indicate the dates for those requirements that you have completed successfully.
____ Thesis Proposal
____ Thesis Defense
____ All Required Coursework
____ Comprehensive Exam or Area Paper
____ Dissertation Proposal

7. Teaching Preferences

	Role (TA or Instructor)	Course Title
1)	_____	_____
2)	_____	_____
3)	_____	_____
4)	_____	_____
5)	_____	_____

(please list any additional ordered preferences on an attached sheet)

8. If none of your listed preferences are available, do you wish to be considered for other courses? ___ yes ___ no

9. Please indicate whether you have or anticipate any other form of support (e.g., fellowship, scholarship, research or teaching assistantship, I/O or clinical paid placement in the community) for all or part of the appointment period for which you are applying. Explain:

10. Please attach the following information as well. (Staple the attached pages to this one, with this page on top. You may wish to save this information on disk to make future applications easier.)

- 1) a list of courses you have taught previously (please include the semester and campus)
- 2) any supporting evidence for your ability to teach your preferred courses (e.g., courses you have taken, your own research)
- 3) any other information that you believe is useful (e.g., course evaluations, Center for 21st Century Teaching Excellence or NITOP workshops attended)